

HONENLOHE STEPS IN.

His First Visit to the Kaiser as German Chancellor.

Bismarck Says He Knew that the Change Would Come.

Few Departmental Changes Are Expected at Berlin.

(By Associated Press.)
POTSDAM, Oct. 28.—Prince Hohenlohe this morning visited Emperor William in his new capacity of Chancellor of the German Empire and Premier of Prussia. The Prince then proceeded to Berlin, to which city Herr von Koller, the newly appointed Minister of the Interior, had preceded him.

LONDON, Oct. 28.—A despatch to The Times from Berlin says that it is believed that the only departmental changes likely to follow the change in the Chancellorship and the Prussian Ministry will be those necessary to prevent friction in the state machinery. The Emperor being specially anxious for the continuity of the present foreign policy, Baron Marschall von Bieberstein, Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, will retain office. The crisis, therefore, remains an internal and, in the Emperor's view, merely a personal one.

Whether it was necessary for such a purpose to subject the country to such a severe shock is another question. As a Berlin paper cynically remarks there are two men overboard, but the course remains unchanged. Perhaps the only personage who may be sincerely congratulated in Count von Caprivi.

BERLIN, Oct. 28.—The correspondent of the Associated Press learns from Varzin that upon receipt of the news of the Ministerial crisis Prince Bismarck said: "I knew this would be the inevitable result. Count Eulenburg was right in regard to the anti-Socialist measures, but Gen. von Caprivi disagreed with him, and either one or both had to resign."

Prince Bismarck returns to Friedrichshagen on Nov. 3. On account of the state of his health, the Prince will be unable to see any more delegations before leaving Varzin. The health of Princess Bismarck causes anxiety.

CONSTERNATION IN CHINA.
Decisive Battle with the Japs Expected at Port Arthur.

(By Associated Press.)
TIENTSIN, Oct. 28.—The news of the Chinese defeat, north of the Yalu River, has caused consternation here. The Chinese officials do not attempt to deny the serious nature of the disaster.

The next fighting is expected at Port Arthur. News of the result is awaited with anxiety.

LONDON, Oct. 28.—A despatch from Shanghai states that several thousand troops at Nankin mutilated and refused to march to Tien-Tsin, because their pay was in arrears for several months.

SAVED HER HUSBAND'S LIFE.

Wife Wounded and Her Husband's Assassin Shot Dead.

(By Associated Press.)
DAYTON, O., Oct. 28.—Henry W. Meyer, a son of Jno. Meyer, member of the Board of Education, last night shot and killed John J. Grimmie, a neighbor and former friend. Grimmie claimed that Meyer was intimate with his wife, Mrs. Meyer, who had heart of Grimmie's threats, followed her husband through the yard as he was leaving the house and was pleading with him to remain at home just as she reached the rear steps. Grimmie sprang from behind a shed and exclaimed: "New Meyer, I've got you."

At the same time he leveled the revolver at Meyer's breast. The wife sprang between the two men just as Grimmie fired and received the bullet in her right arm, saving her husband's life.

The men then grappled and several shots were exchanged, when Grimmie fell to the ground mortally wounded. Two bullets pierced his heart. Meyer escaped unhurt and is now locked up on the charge of murder. Among Grimmie's effects was found an anonymous letter warning him of his wife's alleged infidelity and accusing Meyer. This note presumably is responsible for the tragedy.

FOR SWINDLING MILLINERS.

Millie Horowitz Remanded for Further Examination.

Millie Horowitz, who was arrested for swindling milliners, was arraigned in the Tombs Police Court to-day and remanded for further examination. The police say that her scheme was to hire a suit for herself and grand-mother in a fashionable hotel, call a couple and go out shopping. She would order goods sent to her room, telling the proprietor to send by the messenger the difference between the cost of a purchase and a $50 bill. Receiving the goods and the change, exclaiming herself long enough to go into the next room to get her own money and walk out of the hotel.

There are several complaints of this nature against her. She was arrested last Friday night by the Headquarters police and kept in retirement until yesterday. She confessed to the police, and said that she lived at 347 East One Hundred and Fourteenth street.

The police went to that address and found a puny, little, bewhiskered man, who was said to have been her confederate. He was remanded with her.

ROMANCE OF TWO LANDS.

Romanoski Arrested 15 Years After an Unhappy Marriage.

Julius Romanoski was arraigned in the Yorkville Police Court this morning on a charge of abandonment and non-support, preferred by his wife, to whom he was married in Poland fourteen years ago. He was sixteen years old and his wife fourteen.

The couple have never lived together. His wife waited for fifteen years before she started from Poland in search of her husband. She found a home with friends at 340 East Seventy-seventh street and took daily walks about the city, making inquiries for her country people. Last Thursday she learned of her husband's whereabouts and secured a warrant for his arrest.

Justice Meade adjourned the case for further examination.

May Be a Spanish Crisis.

Ex-Berlin Banker Wants Damages from a Milwaukee Woman.

(By Associated Press.)
MILWAUKEE, Wis., Oct. 28.—Adolph Scholtz wants $25,000 for breach of promise from Katharina Pitzer, the daughter of a Galena street merchant. In his complaint it is stated that on Aug. 1, 1883, Scholtz was engaged in the banking business in Berlin, Germany. He claims that he met Miss Pitzer and proposed marriage, and was accepted. Acting on her advice, Scholtz claims that he disposed of his business interests in Germany and came to Milwaukee.

He arrived here in 1883, but Miss Pitzer refused to marry him. Scholtz asks for $25,000 for the alleged breach of promise and an additional $5,000 for his loss of business.

WEDDING GOWN A SHROUD.

Miss Prentice, Who Was to Be Married Thursday, Buried To-Day.

The body of Miss Ida B. Prentice will be buried today from her late home, 85 Eighth avenue. She died suddenly Friday, and thereby hangs a sad story.

The girl, who lived with her widowed mother, was betrothed to Robert Reade, a young Southerner, and all arrangements had been made for their wedding, which was to have taken place on Thursday at the Presbyterian Church in West Fifty-ninth street.

She was prostrated last Tuesday by illness, and died rapidly. Her fiancé, who was in the city, was informed of her death and hurriedly returned. He was with her when she died, and he was with her when she was buried.

Search was instituted and a bag containing $7,500 in gold was found in a cesspool under a Chinese wash house, which once belonged to the Savage estate; two bags with $1,500 in silver were found under an old building near the Commodore Hotel, and one bag which had contained $500 in gold, and from which $200 had been extracted, was discovered buried in Klein's back yard.

Savage at first maintained stolid silence, and told of Klein's confession, saying he was innocent of the crime; but when confronted by his pal, he had nothing more to say. Klein also confessed that they had robbed the post-office here on the night of Sept. 4.

BANDIT FAILED TO ESCAPE.

Train Robber Only Needed Ten Minutes to Gain Liberty.

(By Associated Press.)
TUCSON, Ariz., Oct. 28.—Oscar Rogers, one of the men charged with holding up a Southern Pacific East-bound overland train a few weeks ago, near Maricopa station, and now confined in jail here, made a daring and almost successful attempt to escape.

He had removed all but one layer of brick from the wall when his operations were discovered. Rogers would have made his escape if he had had ten minutes more time.

Once outside the walls, his capture would have been no easy matter. For it is positively known that others implicated in the Maricopa train robbery were near to help him.

"Kid" Thompson, whom the Southern Pacific detectives are working night and day to capture, is thought to be in this vicinity.
